Newport News Historic Sites
2021 Easter Egg Hunt

Welcome to this year’s Easter Egg Hunt! This year you will hunt for eggs at our historic sites to find the answers to questions. If you answer five questions, you will receive a special prize bag!

Redeem your forms until April 3rd at:

Newport News Visitor Center
Newport News Park
13560 Jefferson Ave.
Open 9am-5pm, 7 days a week

Lee Hall Mansion
163 Yorktown Road
Open 10am-4pm,
Thursday-Saturday
Questions for Ages 3-6

Battle of Dam No. 1 Site, Newport News Park
Jefferson Ave. entrance, drive past Visitor Center, follow signs to Discovery Center

What do you see behind the sign?
How many colors can you pick out in nature?

Endview Plantation 362 Yorktown Road
What color are the buildings?
Count the windows! How many do you see on the main house?

Lee Hall Mansion 163 Yorktown Road
What are the walls of the house and smaller building made from?
How many doors can you find on the big house? Hint: Look under the porches!

Lee Hall Depot 9 Elmhurst Street
What colors are on the building?
Look at the tracks on the ground behind the building. What travels on tracks?

Questions for Ages 7-12

Battle of Dam No. 1 Site, Newport News Park
Jefferson Ave. entrance, drive past Visitor Center, follow signs to Discovery Center

Which two people were awarded the Medal of Honor for their bravery at this site?

Endview Plantation 362 Yorktown Road
Who built the main house?
How many children did Dr. and Mrs. Curtis have?

Lee Hall Mansion 163 Yorktown Road
What year did Richard Lee purchase the land where Lee Hall is now located?
What was the smaller brick building used for?

Lee Hall Depot 9 Elmhurst Street
What does C & O stand for?
What year did train service begin here?